

Population Health Showcase

Date: Tuesday, 5 September 2023

Time: 8.30am-11.00am

Venue: Liverpool Hospital, Liverpool Education & Research Centre, Conference Room 2 and 3

Time	Event	Speaker
8:30am	Networking event breakfast for speakers & registered attendees
9:00am	Introduction/Welcome	Mandy Williams, Director Population Health
9:10am	Implementing nurse home visiting with sustainable quality and family impact	Distinguished Professor Lynn Kemp
9:30am	Prescribing healthy foods and meals to improve health and wellbeing: Food is Medicine case studies	Dr Jason Wu
9:50am	Implementing routine paediatric height/length and weight screening and weight management advice by clinicians: an evaluation	Ms Slavica Krstic
10:00am	Effect of parents' country of birth on the relationship between socioeconomic status and childhood overweight and obesity in Southwest Sydney, Australia: learnings from the Growing Healthy Kids population prevalence survey	Dr Vilas Kovai
10:10am	The association between patient-reported experiences with hospital food services and experiences with care and complications: A population-based study from New South Wales, Australia	Dr Zhaoli Dai-Keller
10:20am	Unleashing Innovation through Embedded Prevention in Levelling Up: A Retrospective Analysis of Urban Regeneration and Placemaking Interventions	Mr Andrew Reid
10:30am	Digital surveillance approach to address child development, mental health and psychosocial needs in rural and multicultural communities: A preliminary findings of the Watch Me Grow Electronic Program.	Ms Teresa Winata
10:40am	Prayers and More: An evaluation of a mental health literacy course for Arabic speaking religious and community leaders in Australia: effects on posttraumatic stress disorder related knowledge, attitudes and help-seeking	Mr Henry Lim
10:50am	Closing Address	Mandy Williams, Director Population Health